If enrolment is obtained by giving false and misleading information the enrolment may be cancelled by the principal, pursuant to section 20. Additionally, the applicant is under obligation pursuant to Section 17, to notify the principal of any change of residence. Failure to notify the principal is a basis for cancellation of the enrolment and the Director General or her delegate may cancel the enrolment and determine at which other school the child may be enrolled. #### Out of Boundary Enrolments and Attending Applecross SHS

Parents residing outside the Applecross SHS zone who have children attending Applecross PS need to be aware that attending Applecross PS is not a guarantee that their child's enrolment will be automatically accepted by Applecross SHS. Being a "Local Area Intake School" as gazetted by Parliament, means that students residing within the enrolment area will be guaranteed a place and those living outside may be redirected to their local high school if Applecross SHS has no capacity to accept them.
